

Occupational Therapist

- Are you passionate about making a difference?
- Do you enjoy creating client-centred solutions that drive real progress?
- Do you like working in a supportive team with access to extensive professional expertise, professional development opportunities and generous leave entitlements?
- Full-time contract position (2 years, 5 days a week)

Royal Institute for Deaf and Blind Children (RIDBC) provides quality and innovative services to achieve the best outcomes for current and future generations of Australians with vision or hearing impairment.

We at the Royal Institute of Deaf and Blind Children (RIDBC) are looking for our next Occupational Therapist. Be part of an innovative and experienced team with a commitment to putting our clients at the heart of everything we do.

Our aim is to ensure that children and adults with vision or hearing impairment are given equal access to communication, education, literacy and therapy services that will enable them to live a life where nothing holds them back.

What we offer:

- Be part of a supportive, highly experienced team with access to mentoring and clinical support
- A supportive leader
- Incredible professional development opportunities
- A committed and values-driven organisation that makes a real difference to individuals and families
- Salary packaging benefits (you may be able to reduce the amount of income tax you pay and increase your disposable income)
- Generous leave entitlements (above industry standards)
- Convenient on-site parking at our North Rocks site

Our Occupational Therapists are an integral part of our multi-disciplinary Allied Health team who implement best practice services for our clients. The key responsibilities include:

- Driving functional progress for clients with sensory impairment
- Client assessment, intervention and management
- Creating opportunities from challenges
- Being an active team member, a key contributor to a high-performing, engaged team

Our ideal candidate will:

- Have relevant qualifications in Occupational Therapy and current registration with AHPRA
- Be willing to provide service to our clients in Western Sydney and the Hills District
- Be a collaborative, enthusiastic and respectful team member
- Have demonstrated experience achieving positive outcomes with client assessment, intervention and management
- Be open-minded, forward thinking and resilient
- Have exceptional written and verbal communication skills
- Be a professional, self-motivated and proactive learner
- Work well independently and as part of a team to successfully manage a full and varied case load
- Have a valid NSW drivers licence

The successful applicant for this position will require a current Working With Children Check and be asked to provide a police check. An individual will not necessarily be excluded from employment based on the result of a criminal record. Each application will be considered on its merits and the inherent requirements of the role.
